V. Old Business

- a. Discussion ensued about the Treasury binder and account, Jake is working on it.
- b. Discussion still standing on if Trio Club is going to adopt a family for Christmas this year.

VI. New Business

- a. Discussion ensued about our new club co-advisor Mary Lute-Brown who will be assisting our advisor Carol Kurmis.

- b. Discussion ensued about Jenny Ooms who will be the chair for our Scholarship committee. Our advisor will work closely with this committee.
- c. Discussion ensued about the holiday toy store. Chuck has clothing and toys that he would like to donate and Rachel volunteered to pick up these things because Chuck has no way of getting them here. Jake works at The Family House in Valparaiso and they sent toys for the holiday store.
- d. Discussion ensued about whether St. Mary's was to get left over clothing from the clothing drive since that was what was done with the left-over clothing last year. Joyce talked about stands being put up in the front entrance of each building to allow for better advertisement. Chuck motioned for clothing to go to St. Mary's and Tammie seconded the motion and motion was carried through to a club vote.
- e. Discussion ensued about the clothing drive set-up time being from 1:00-3:00pm on Sunday November 19, 2006. Motion was floored and carried.
- f. Discussion ensued about Face Book a communication tool on campus.
